

The Speakers

Douglas Wilson is the pastor of Christ Church in Moscow, Idaho. He is a founding board member of Logos School and a senior fellow of theology at New St. Andrews College. He helped to establish the Confederation of Reformed Evangelical Churches (CREC), is the editor of Credenda Agenda, and the author of numerous books on classical Christian education, the family, the church, and the reformed faith. After serving in the U.S. Navy, he completed a B.A. and M.A. in philosophy and a B.A. in classical studies from the University of Idaho. Douglas and his wife Nancy have three children and a bunch of grandkids.

Nancy Wilson is a pastor's wife, mother of three, and grandmother of ten. She has written a couple of books on the duties of wives and mothers, and she has a regular column for women in Credenda Agenda. She and Douglas have been married for thirty years.

Helpful Information

Conference Location: The conference will be taking place in First Baptist Church of Cary, located on 218 South Academy Street. This is in the center of downtown Cary, across from the post office. For directions, you can visit the First Baptist Church's website: <http://www.caryfbc.org/html/directions.html>. Childcare will not be provided.

Parking: Please park in the church's parking lot, located on the right side of the church, and use the side entrance to the church rather than the front entrance. You will be directed from there to the main sanctuary.

Hotel Accommodations: For visitors from out of town, rooms are available at Best Western of Cary for a rate of $59.00 per night. They are located at 1722 Walnut Street, Cary, NC 27511. Call 1-800-CAR-YINN and mention the Christ Church conference to receive the discounted rate. The last day to reserve a room at the reduced price is March 20.

Restaurants: Several local restaurants and sandwich shops are within easy walking distance of the conference location.

Church Service on Sunday: Christ Church meets in the Raleigh Seventh Day Adventist Church, located on the corner of Tryon and Dillard at 4805 Dillard Drive, Raleigh, NC 27606. The service begins at 9:30 a.m.
